

Awards on Epidemiology & Public Health

Mr. Naif Alanazi

Assistant Professor, Department of Geriatrics, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Riyadh, E-mail: alenezina@outlook.com

Gerontology is a restorative forte logical investigation of mature age, the way toward ageing process, and the specific issues of elderly folks' individuals.

Over the past decades Ageing Research has gathered an increasing amount of attention. There are evidences that the gut flora plays a major role in the geriatric diseases. Over the time, our understanding of the link between gerontology and geriatric medicine has evolved. The new therapeutic targets in ageing science would be the focus of future research.

As indicated by the new statistical surveying report, by 2030, it is evaluated that the US populace of individuals over the age of 65 will coupled, making up over 20% or around 70 million of the As the children of post war America enter the geriatric populace, this can possibly colossally raise the country's as of now high social insurance costs.

Join us to witness invaluable scientific discussions and add to the future advancements in the field of Ageing Research and Geriatric Medicine in the upcoming "10th International Conference on Aging Research and Geriatric Medicine" which will be organized during April 22-23, 2020 in Berlin, Germany.

Mr. Naif Alanazi gives a talk on "Biopsychosocial Characteristics and Functional Status among the Elderly in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia"

Join us to witness invaluable scientific discussions and add to the future advancements in the field of Ageing Research and Geriatric Medicine in the upcoming "10th International Conference on Aging Research and Geriatric Medicine" which will be organized during April 22-23, 2020 in Berlin, Germany.

Regards

Amelia Taylor

ageing@speakersconclave.com